Duckworth in race, first 3 file

The political pot began to simmer here this week.

First formal announcement was made by a candidate for county-wide office in the Aug. 8 Democratic primary while the first three aspirants formally qualified and paid their filing fee to Leo W. Seal, Jr., secretary of the Democratic executive committee.

Announcing this week for sheriff and tax collector is Joe K. Duckworth of Pearl River, who has been president of the Hancock General Hospital board of trustees for the last three years.

Two more sheriff-tax collector hopefuls were among those filing—former sheriff Gerald V. Price who sold some time ago he would run and John S. Bordages. Also qualifying is Earl J. Nodine for Beat 3 supervisor.

Waveland rushes to extend gas service

Waveland Town Council signed on $10,000 contract Tuesday night with Superior Utilities, Inc., for extension of natural gas and water lines off Nicholson Avenue and roadwork until Saturday to consider extending the project to serve more of the newly annexed area.

Because Superior had started the gas line installation Tuesday morning, before the papers were signed, council authorized a waiver of the 30-day notice to begin. About 1,400 feet of pipe was already in place and the company's representative said if the weather holds out and he runs into no road traps in getting the pipes from the State Highway Department to go under U.S. 90, he should finish next Friday. The contract provides 90 working days.

A $416 reduction in cost by a change order on type of pipe was approved on the recommendation of Eli Abbott, Jr., of B.M. Dornblatt and Associates, town consulting engineers.

Alderman John Longo, Jr., proposed increasing the scope of the gas work to pick up more avenues for the town and serve the annexed section along U.S. 90. If this can be handled by a change order, rather than advertising for new bids, indications are Superior might give a cheaper price while the equipment is still on the site. Because of the speed needed, Mayor Garfield Linder was to check into the gas system's finances to see if about $5,000 could be earmarked now for the work and report back Saturday.

The mayor and board of aldermen at that time will inspect Goodwin Kennels with an eye to constructing facilities to house stray dogs picked up by the town. Goodwin Kennels said he could not improve strays, but he would accept dogs and cats for adoption.

Council voted to pay Lucien Galt, Jr., town attorney, $9,500 on or before next Feb. 15 for

Beach Rd. bids six weeks off?

It'll be no less than six weeks before bids are ready for advertising for Hurricane Betsy repairs to the beachfront road, County Engineer George Wier told the board of supervisors Monday.

His report on the status came as two beachfront property owners—Ed Rowley and Floyd Wallis—appeared to urge no change in the new pier regulations and to plead for some type of guardrail along the new road to protect children.

Wier already has had his conference with the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads and it has agreed to go 50-50 on the cost of the repair work. Plans include four turn-outs onto the beach—one in Bay St. Louis, two in Waveland and one at Jackson Ridge.

The engineer explained he had provided for guard railing in his original plans but the bureau refused to go along. He estimated it would cost $100,000. He agreed Monday to leave squares to insert bases in the new surfacing to which concrete strips could be placed to keep youngsters from dashing into the road. This would have to be a separate county project.

Wallis suggested the county might be liable if a child were killed. He warned also that cars and trailers will get on to the new sand beach without some railing. One got stuck Friday at Sears Avenue, he reported.

Easter worship schedule given

Easter, the annual Christian festival in commemoration of the resurrection of Jesus Christ, will be revered locally with special church services and events.

At Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church the hour of adoration will be from 2 to 3 p.m. on Good Friday with Stations of the Cross at 2:40 p.m. The Sacrament of Penance will be administered from 4 to 6 p.m. and the mission will follow at 7:30 p.m. This will consist of solemn liturgical services, Adoration of the Cross, distribution of communion, the closing sermon and the Papal blessing.

On Holy Saturday the Sacrament of Penance will be administered from 3 to 5:30 and 6 to 7:30 p.m. with solemn Easter vigil services at 8 p.m.

Masses will be at 6, 7, 8:30, 10 and 11:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. on Easter Sunday. The senior choir will participate in the 10 a.m. high mass and the children's choir will sing at the special 8:30 mass.

In First Baptist Church at the 11 a.m. worship Rev. John Dearing, pastor, will preach the Five Meanings of Easter. The choir will render special music. The training union will meet at 6 p.m. and Sunday School is at the usual hour of 9:45 a.m. Easter Sunday will also mark the beginning of a week of extensive preparation for a revival April 3-9 with Rev. Donald Morton of Amory, Miss., first vice president of Mississippi Baptist Convention as

St. Joseph fights last ditch stand

A hard-fought committee, established at a rally Sunday night staged by parents, clergies and friends of St. Joseph Academy, is to meet tonight to fight the school's last ditch stand.

The school is to be sold to the State of Mississippi for $112,000. Parents consulted with the school last Tuesday night and Mother Regis, superior, invited persons interested to Sunday's session in an effort to explain the full picture. On hand were the school's principal, Mother Francis Borja and her assistant, Mother Aloysius Baggott High, provincial of the Sisters of the Sacred Heart who operate St. Stanislaus College; Brother Leo, principal of St. Stanislaus; and Sister Justine, SJA principal.

About 150 persons discussed the school's needs, expressing amazement at learning of the neglected plumbing and poor condition of roofs in the buildings. Three million dollars was mentioned on the sum needed to keep the academy in operation on Department Road. Of this $1 million could be used to fix things up and construction operations with the balance to be loaned to finance it.

Suggestion was made to raise $95,000 to $100,000 before this school year ends to keep the academy going next year and provide time to plan a major fund drive and capital improvement.

To pilgrims

Yasume open

Yasume, the 60-year-old home of Col. and Mrs. Numa C. Piler at 1524 North Beach Blvd., will provide the "something old" when the Gulf Coast Council of Garden Clubs' spring pilgrimage comes to Bay Waveland Tuesday, April 15.

The residence once was occupied by Roberto Cuevas, a mail carrier who married an elderly spinster who lived in the house. Jerome Carver, long time Bay merchant who was related to the late Mr. Cuevas, recalls his uncle hitching a horse to a buggy, driving to Bay St. Louis to pick up the mail bags, returning home to put the mail in a waiting stage, the horse to pasture and delivering mail along his water route to Bay.

The house was numbered 1524.

West Bay group forms

About 150 property owners in the area Bay St. Louis proposes to annex have organized the West Bay Civic Association to study the feasibility of the municipality's proposal.

Gerry Lane was elected chairman of the group with Norman Beagles, vice chairman and Roger Davis, secretary.

Appointing Mrs. Piler to be Appointed to a committee to confer with Bay St. Louis officials on various aspects of their annexation plan was Mrs. Piler.

Other members of the committee are Mrs. Piler, Mrs. Robert Gray, county council president; Minnie, Lee W. Seal, C.C. McDonald, Rene de Montbrun, Alfred McCulloch, all of Joret; Curtis B. Hardin, Donna Baird, Rene Caire, all of Pico; Christiana Robes of Pico; Christiana Robes of Pico; Christiana Robes of Pico.

The back of the Irish held on Saturday for all the O'Brien, O'Leary, O'Donnell, O'Connell, etc., in New Orleans. St. Patrick's Day parade. Bright sunshine helped from clouds. Street and a gentle breeze was just brisk enough to keep marchers stepping cheerily.

Word on French leprechaun

Grand Marshal, as one also but the one and only Black Knight, Henry Deville, received heavy criticism last time he attracted a line from a feminine bystander in return for one of the shamrock encircled silver balloons tossed as throws by the 100 men strong group. Lovely Sally Schatz, wearing a pale green frock, was 1967. College, and pretty much followed, each riding upon a National Guard jeep. In between marchers were two bands, Valois O'Leary and Kathleen High of Pines Christian. The Shamrockers, and of the rainbow flow, trophy winner in its category, was manned by Ted Reindle and Martin Martell. We couldn't begin to list the names of all 100 members of the organization, just a few looking dashing in green heron, some in uniform and ties included. Joe Griffin, Joe Smith, Lester Harty, Gene Burke, (whose wife, by the way, had her hair done a beautiful shade of green in honor of the occasion), George George, Charles Cox, John Gallagher, George Keefe, Joe Deindus, Gray Wade, Harold Zimmerman, (one of the "redneck" leprechauns), Johnny Long, Dominick Smith, Al Grant, David Garcia, Mel Villers, Bob Latta, Tony Malone, Bill Adams, and roughly 50 others.

Saluting at home plate

The reviewing stand was decorated with green, naturally. Johnny Long was MC, more or less, and his son, Mayor George O'Leary, named the Callen with traditional champagne. Others in positions of honor included Ed O'Leary, Jean Long, the Harry Schatz, Ann Deville and daughter, Gill West, Clio Smith, Claire Bourgeois (wearing bright emerald), former queen, Pat (Mrs. Larry) Blalock, accompanied by her tiny daughter, and Debbie Poulson, William Grace, Bill Jones and Buddy Dufour, Father Hambrick and Father Tuto and Zelma Selz.

Entrants to Paddy's parade

The tiny leprechauns upon their own fleet colored gals a hit at the girl and boy scout troops, the American Legion color guard, an antique automobile equipped with an ear glowing sign, and forces of the law such as Fred Bergsalo, who drove Ray Charles Johnson, also a guest of honor in the reviewing stand. Bill Kemp and Wayne McHenry representing the State highway patrol and Eide Bergsalo, chief deputy of the Highway County Sheriff's Office. Also a colorful group from Louisiana's Travis' Lounge and some costumed little ones riding in Manual Nease's buggy, with his pointed black must, wearing the glow in a green costume complete with hat. Other trophies went to young son, Jay, George and Armand Sorensen, who on hand. Armand marched the entire route cheerfully costumed and George, wearing the "baby" to his D model of a green costume, and boy, put through other acts. As we leave the gay green world of Waveland on St. Patrick's Day, we give you a day or two of the parade.

Wearing green

It would be impossible to mention even one tenth of the spectators, but just a few included Edith Travira (Misses), who drove the Coleman's, Doris Carro, Doris Vogt, Gerri Blanchard, Nancy Gray, Ben, Leslie, Laurie and Nancy, in the latter in a rare public appearance; Bea George, Marie North, Grace Rodriguez, Shirley and Roland Fontaine, Ellen and Ludwig Moran, Jenny Bourgeois, Pat and Joe Vignier, Yvonne and Jack Humphreys, Billy Gray, Edith and James Ruhl, Jane and Baby Bennett, Kat and Bill Scott, Lois Glass, Jane Dyer, Phyl Lagasse, their husbands being among the shamrockers; Bud Thomas, Ray Adams, Doc Elliott and his charming wife, Tisa Jankovic, Elvira and Bob Watson, the M. D. Hornes, children and visiting grandchildren, the Mont, Leah and the Lang, the Bill Overalls and friends from Pass Christian; the James Cokers, Mary and Mac McGill, Joan Bernard, whose daughter April was one of the leprechauns; Pat Garcia, Isabel Villers, Eunice Revere, and of course all the Coleman Avenue regulars including Oswald Villers, who wasn't feeling up to marching, but viewed proceedings from a comfortable chair, while dressed in his best, he etc.

N.O. survivors

One of the larger visiting groups, who were more or less recovering from the big Third Ward fête March 17, in New Orleans, guests of Teena and Harold Eck, included their daughter, Mary Carol, Margaret and Matt Boden, Claude and Fred Zimmerman, Marie and Eugene Le Forre, Charles and John Le Forre, Della and Jimmy Ocker, Marie and Monica Henderson, Melba and Wanda, Claude and Joy Fagan and president of the American Society of Military Engineers, had retired to Waveland after serving 37 years in principal engineer and chief engineer in the Corps office in New Orleans. He was the recipient of a gold medal, the highest award given by the War Department to a civilian for exceptional service.

Get well soon

Get well wishes are now being sent to Lamar Martin, who was forced to miss the dedication of his own Methodist church last Sunday. He was taken to Haddick General earlier in the day where his main trouble was diagnosed as near exhaustion from just plain over work, so he's to catch up on his rest for a while.

Elise Dupree was a patient in Gulfport Memorial Hospital last week, as was Clyde Craig. Clyde had ear surgery. Hope they're both well by the time this appears in print.

New cars start popping out with leaves on the trees. That's a very good looking new white model. Marie and Lou Harris is a marvellous group as the Harris Margers. The J.F. Jacobs have acquired a lovely new green automobile.

Our Angie (Mrs. Jean) McKeale is back in the area again having suffered a severe fall injury in a tumble in the bathroom of her home in the 4000's. She is now in the hospital.

Back that all kinds of conditions were served last week at the two high schools. Several dinner at our lady of the Gulf.

Stirling Dupree was the guest of the year for St. Patrick's Day celebration. He was a smiling two-page spread from the local newspaper.

Miss Green, daughter of John and Mary Ann Green, was the winner in the Crescent City.

Sad, sad day

The proposed closing of St. Joseph's Academy after 112 years of education has caused a great deal of concern. The school was under discussion for a long time at a big meeting in the Crescent. Some of the girls have given up their school, and a couple just might have been closed down.

St. Joseph's Academy was founded in 1855 by the Sisters of the Holy Family. It was one of the oldest schools in the area.

Gripe corner

We've been asked to mention the fact that garbage cans put on curbs several days before pick-up in some areas, are covered, and frequently a traffic hazard.

Did You Ever Think of Getting Your Easter Bonnet From A&P?

We don't sell Easter bonnets but... we suspect many an Easter hat has been paid for with money saved by shopping A&P.

we're implying that A&P has the lowest prices on all items all the time?

There is no store that can make that claim.

What we are saying is:

if you're interested in your total food bill,
if you're looking for the best values
for your dollar, A&P is the store for you.

It's a little late for this year's Easter bonnet, but start shopping A&P this week, anyway.

It won't be long before somebody in the house will need a new pair of shoes.

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P?
It's one of many.

By L.S. (Doc) Elliott

Hunting is permitted only with a shot gun, placed in a trap. Baiting traps is prohibited. There are plenty of traps in our woods hereabout and, according to information, there should be some good shooting ahead.

This is the best time of the year, according to most hunters. The weather at the present time is ideal for hunting. The woods (which are just now in their prime) and the water are all excellent. The water is not cold, as we find out. We are now hitting a number of fish.

Base and game are being caught almost everywhere and they are now hitting a number of fish.

A fisherman is usually a jerk at the end of a pole waiting for a fish on the other end.

Individuals and groups interested in learning how they might help in the standards of water quality for the future, required under the Water Quality Act of 1965, can get a free copy of Action for Clean Waters, published by the Clean Water Foundation of America. The booklet is a publication of the Citizen's Workshop on Clean Waters for America, a project sponsored by the U.S. and other national conservation organizations.

Clear and clean water is necessary for good fishing, healthy and dry water reflects the fish. Find clear water and your fishing problems are over.

By purchasing crabs for bait, you are helping to keep the crab population healthy. The crab is a very important part of the food chain. If you can keep the crab population healthy, you can keep your fishing problems over.

PROCLAMATION

Good Friday

Reverend the solemnity of the Memorial Day of Good Friday, and that the Christian World have in common with sympathy, commemorating the world's Greatest Sacrifice.

That it is but meet and proper that our people, in their daily activities as far as possible, and possible with their every day life and pursuits, to do their best to honor the memory of Christ who died for our sins and suffered the crucifixion of Calvary.

AND AS A FURTHER expression of our feelings of reverence and sorrow, and as an outward mark, I would respectfully ask that every place of business in the City of Bay Saint Louis close their doors and cease business on this day in commemoration of the death of Jesus Christ.

Done this 21st day of March, 1957, at the City Hall, Bay Saint Louis, Mississippi.
